

Junior High Summer Reading List 2010

Listed below are the two mandatory books that rising 6th grade students are required to read before returning to school August 12, 2010. The Literature teacher will lead the class in discussion and activities of the books during the first week of school. The students may also be required to take a quiz, prepare a book report, or give an oral presentation. Books may be checked out of the library. Copies may also be purchased at local book stores or online.

Where to find your books:

Online:

- Amazon Books at www.amazon.com
- Books-A-Million at www.bamm.com
- Barnes and Noble at www.barnesandnoble.com

Local bookstores:

- Books-A-Million (483-3356)
- Barnes and Noble (864-0840)
- Edward McKay's Used Books (868-1001)
- Cumberland County Library (483-7727)

6th Grade

Required Reading:

All students:

Amy Carmichael: rescuer of Precious Gems by Janet Benge. Please buy the YWAM Publishing version only! ISBN# 1576580180 (FCS has 7 copies available for loan; ask in the office.)

The Cay by Theodore Taylor (FCS has 2 copies available for loan; ask in the office)

Extra Credit: Reading the extra credit books is highly encouraged. A summary of the book focusing on the basics of character, plot, setting, conflict, and resolution will be required as the extra credit assignment. The summary will be due the first week of school.

The Bronze Bow by Elizabeth George Speare (FCS has 1 copy available for loan.)

The Yearling by Marjorie Rawlings (FCS has 3 copies available for loan.)

Books must be read by Thursday, August 12th, the first day of school.

Junior High Summer Reading List 2010

Listed below are the two mandatory books that rising 7th grade students are required to read before returning to school August 12, 2010. The Literature teacher will lead the class in discussion and activities of the books during the first week of school. The students may also be required to take a quiz, prepare a book report, or give an oral presentation. Books may be checked out of the library. Copies may also be purchased at local book stores or online.

Where to find your books:

Online:

- Amazon Books at www.amazon.com
- Books-A-Million at www.bamm.com
- Barnes and Noble at www.barnesandnoble.com

Local bookstores:

- Books-A-Million (483-3356)
- Barnes and Noble (864-0840)
- Edward McKay's Used Books (868-1001)
- Cumberland County Library (483-7727)

7th Grade

Required Reading:

Amos Fortune, Free Man by Elizabeth Yates (FCS has 3 copies available for loan; ask in office)

Across Five Aprils by Irene Hunt (FCS has 3 copies available for loan; ask in office)

Extra Credit: Reading the extra credit books is highly encouraged. A summary of the book focusing on the basics of character, plot, setting, conflict, and resolution will be required as the extra credit assignment. The summary will be due the first week of school.

Number the Stars by Lois Lowry (FCS has 2 copies available for loan)

Sound Friendships by Elizabeth Yates

Chip Hilton Sports Series by Claire Bee. (Available at Lifeway Christian bookstores, www.lifeway.com or www.cbd.com)

- a. #6 Hoop Crazy
- b. #14 Tournament Crisis
- c. #16 Payoff Pitch

Books must be read by Thursday, August 12th, the first day of school.

Junior High Summer Reading List 2010

Listed below are the two mandatory books that rising 8th grade students are required to read before returning to school August 12, 2010. The Literature teacher will lead the class in discussion and activities of the books during the first week of school. The students may also be required to take a quiz, prepare a book report, or give an oral presentation. Books may be checked out of the library. Copies may also be purchased at local book stores or online.

Where to find your books:

Online:

- Amazon Books at www.amazon.com
- Books-A-Million at www.bamm.com
- Barnes and Noble at www.barnesandnoble.com

Local bookstores:

- Books-A-Million (483-3356)
- Barnes and Noble (864-0840)
- Edward McKay's Used Books (868-1001)
- Cumberland County Library (483-7727)

8th Grade

Required Reading:

A Single Shard by Linda Sue Park (FCS has 1 copy available for loan; ask in office)

Johnny Tremain by Esther Forbes

Extra Credit: Reading the extra credit books is highly encouraged. A summary of the book focusing on the basics of character, plot, setting, conflict, and resolution will be required as the extra credit assignment. The summary will be due the first week of school.

Escape from Warsaw by Ian Serrallier

Heidi by Johanna Spyri

Books must be read by Thursday, August 12th, the first day of school.